

PREVIEW
May 12, 2024

REMINDER . . . rising kindergarten students will move up to Elementary this weekend and we will be launching our new Lower Elementary / Upper Elementary groups.

PSALM 125:1-5

Question to ponder:

How should we proceed as pilgrims on our life journey?

Answer to consider:

Experience God’s goodness and love amidst the ups and downs of life!

Main idea to explore:

When we examine our present reality, we may land on different emotions. Dread. Exhaustion. Defeat. Or, we may be in a better place where feel peace, stillness or even hope. Many times our circumstances dictate these emotions and depending on the day you examine your present reality, you will likely have a different answer.

Our present reality as God’s people calls us to walk with God by faith on our way to the heavenly city. When we ground ourselves in this manner, we can experience all the journey throws at us along the way with perseverance. Our present reality will be complex and difficult at times, but keeping God’s goodness and love as our focus will keep our heads up high and allow us the victory to overcome event he darkest parts of our journey.

Enjoy your preparation time this week! See you Sunday!! 😊
